Saturday Morning, Nov. 3, 1860.

Norwithstanging the drenching rain yesterday and last night, and the despatches, and messengers, announcing a postponement, which were sent in all directions, a large number of people came Ward, yesterday, by Ald. Hamilton, for to town, through mud and mire, to witness the Grand Wide Awake Thorchlight Procession advertised for last evening. time "in a sort of annic rhyme", with a stone Of course, everybody was disappointed .-The weeping of the clouds depressed the Republicans generally, but as there was no help for it they managed to take the disappointment as philo cophically as possible, knowing that "behind the cloud is the sun still shining," and that the "silver lining" will be visible in a few days. The Lincoln Guards, from Pittsburgh. although they were notified of the postponement, came down last night, and were escorted to the Wide Awake Hall, through the former about six hundred. the pelting rain. After being duly rereived, they proceeded to the McLure House, and partook of a repast prepared. A large number of people collected about the hotel, and the Guards were objects of the inauspicious state of the weather very good humoredly, and made the best of the bad streak of luck into which they had fallen. The major portion of the Guards home about 11 o'clock.

A number of the West Alexander Wide great credit. They all showed the will to join with the Wheeling boys, which the latter take for the deed, and thank Bellair, Bridgeport and Martinsville, and would have come over through the driving rain but that messengers were sent to relieve them of the trouble by informing them that the demonstration was postponed.

The whole affair was turned into a sort of humid, dripping jollification, and we had an amusing illustration of the pursoit of fun under difficulties

After taking supper at the McLure House, the Wide Awakes proceeded to the hall again, where speeches were made by Hon. Mr. McNight, of Pittsbuugh, Col. J. S. Brisbin, of Centre County, Pa., and Mr. Bingham, of the Pittsburgh Journal. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed, and a very lively and spirited meeting it was. As the Lincoln Guards were being escorted to Bridgeport, by the Republicans, a crowd of ruffians congregated at the bridge, and indulged in low, dastardly yells, while one or two stones were thrown as the men stepped upon the bridge and the firm, resolute men who had been invited to visit us, and were returning home, was so great, so broad and so eminently in favor of the latter that all but faces of brass must have blushed for shame of their species. It is a subject painful to

BET CONCEALED WEAPONS .- The Union have had a run on pistols within the past wonderful effects. For sale by two or three weeks, and weapons of all kinds are ready sale. We presume that this is partly, if not altogether, owing to the disorderly state of the city. We only state what every citizen knows to be true when we say that the city is possessed by ruffians. Not a night passes but there are the most vile scenes of reckless rowdyism enacted upon the streets, and the ears of men and women are compelled to hear yells of the most disgusting ribaldry and blackguardism. All who pass SAWTELLS & SHANNON, through the streets, or do not close the ears of their houses, know this, and the existence of such a state of things, has not a little to do with the extensive practice of carrying weapons. A very strong feeling is being aroused by the respectable portion of our people towards the adopting of some reformatory measures. The scenes which our people are compelled to witness nightly are a disgrace and a shame, and will eventually make the place a hissing and a by-word to the whole sec-

Ber Rain! Rain!! Rain!!!-All day yesterday the rain poured down. One might have thought the clouds of heaven hal sprung an irreparable leak. The drops bounced and burst upon the sidewalks, and gutters were turned into rivulets. There were ponds in the streets, gurgling music in the water spouts, drumming upon the house tops and pattering upon the window panes.

"It rained and the wind was never weary." There were drooping dray horses and depressed pedestrians, with a prevalent sense of tarpaulins, oil cloth coats, blue overalls, umbrellas, trizzly chickens, curs, "cusses," and-rain. The fog and the mist and smoke hung over, around and about the city, thick enough to cut, and heavy and vapory enough to drown a horse passing through it. It was the nastiest, most aqueous, damp, disagreeable day that ever frowned on a Wide Awake

BOT CHAS. REMELIN, of Cincinnati, made a Breckieridge speech in Germen last night at the Court House. The meeting was not a large one. We couldn't unders and what he said, but he seemed very mild in manner. Remelin was a warm supporter of Fremont, in 1856, but he has since experienced a change of heart.

CHOKING A BOY .- A fine was imposed upon Mr. Joseph Greer, of the first compressing the windpipe of a boy. On "Hollow Eve," the boy was found benting on a coal shed of Mr. Greer Mr. G. went forth and stopped the youth's respiration for a few periods by the means indicated.

THE RIVER .- The river was about at a stand, yesterday, with six feet and a half water in the channel. The rain fell all day without cessation. The Marmora and Argonaut both passed down yesterday, the latter taking from this point about twelve hundred kegs of nails, and COMMON SENSE rules the masses of the people, whatever the misnamed and misauthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing; let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have aiready ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of Hostetten's Bittens, as may be seen by the immense quantities of this medicine which are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for the diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is The contrast between the dirty ruffians rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

BALTIMORE. Nov. 2,-The procession of the Wide Awakes last night, encountered great demonstrations of indignation throughout the whole route. The memhers were greeted with constant hissing eggs were plentifully showered upon hem by women. Their transparencies were smashed with stones, but no personal injuries inflicted. They were protected throughout by a strong police force. At the theatre the galleries were taken possession of by a noisy crowd, who, with grouns and hisses, drowned the voices of the speakers. The Hon. E. Joy Morris, of Philadelphia, was cried down amid a scene of excitement. The Wide Awakes made several moves to clear the galleries, and finally the police forced all to leave except those wearing the Wide Awake badges The meeting, however, was effeatually broken up. Three-fourths of the Lincoln men were Germans. After the meeting, the remains of the procession were escorted by the police to their headquarters.
